DETAILED ACTION

Receipt of the response filed by applicant on September 22, 2002, is acknowledged. The preliminary amendment has been entered. Claims 8-15 are pending.

Double Patenting

1. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

2. Claims 8-15 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 5 of U.S. Patent No. 6,461,494. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claims of the instant application and those of the patent are directed to a method in which an electrode is surrounded with a sealing sheath and the rim of the sealing sheath splays outwardly when engaging the workpiece. See particularly claim 4 of the patent.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

4. Claims 8-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, because the specification, while being enabling for a method for electrochemically processing a wafer, does not reasonably provide enablement for other workpiece processing. The specification does not enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to practice the invention commensurate in scope with these claims. The specification is directed to the electrochemical processing of semiconductor wafers. No other methods have been disclosed nor has guidance been provided as to use of the disclosed apparatus in other methods.
